

SCHOOL PROFILE

Clark County School District is the fifth largest school district in the United States, dealing with more than 311,000 students. This high number of students allows the district to have a variety of academic, athletic and extracurricular activities in which to partake. Trying to provide a safe and supportive environment for its diverse group of students, the school district helps students become active in their community and to take pride in it as well. To meet the needs of a demanding new world, students are equipped with the skills and tools to further their own interests and fuel their abilities. With an assortment of AP classes, and teachers who care and strive to help their students however they can, the Clark County School District produces students ready for the world ahead of them.

Community Information - As the most populated city in Nevada, there is no shortage of fun to be had in Las Vegas. Las Vegas, dubbed as "The Entertainment Capital of the World," is full of hotels, casinos, and a lively atmosphere. The subtropical climate allows for great sightseeing and lots of outdoor adventures. With local ghost towns to visit, horseback riding, kayaking, fishing, boating, bicycling, rock-climbing, and skiing and snowboarding located just 35 miles northwest, there is plenty to see and do for fun! Based locally, there are also a variety of museums to visit, including the Hoover Dam Museum, dedicated to preserving the historical artifacts connected to the workers involved in the construction of this national attraction. Las Vegas is also home to the Smith Center for Performing Arts, which performs broadways shows, opera and dance performances. Las Vegas certainly is a giant playground with lots to offer!
